The last day of exams is shorter than the first three based on bus needs in the district.

Students only need to come to school when they have an exam. Students who are in the building, but not taking an exam must be in either the library or café. Students may not be in the building without adult supervision.

All students must stay in their classrooms for the entire exam block.

Students are expected to take exams during the time and on the day scheduled. Absences must be approved by the administration. Failure to report for an exam will result in an "F" for the missed exam.

Students must be on time for exams. Students who are more than 10 minutes tardy will need administrative approval to be permitted into the classroom. Students will have to receive administrative approval to make up an exam. Without administrative approval, students will receive an "F" on the exam.

Tips for You

- Organize your notebooks and materials prior to studying
- Plan to space out studying rather than cramming the night before an exam
- Complete all study guide materials, use outlines and graphic organizers
- Take notes on your notes
- Attend review sessions if teacher offer them
- The regular dress code still applies
